Incident #: 2022-4777 – Injury Traffic Crash

On November 4, 2022, at 2:13 pm, Barrington Hills Police Department responded to a two-vehicle traffic crash with injuries, at the intersection of Route 68 and Route 59. The preliminary investigation indicates a 2013 Nissan Rogue driven by a 34-year-old male from Lake in the Hills, and a 2020 Tesla driven by a 73-year-old male from Barrington Hills, collided in the intersection. The driver of the Tesla was transported by Barrington Countryside Fire Department paramedics to a local hospital with life-threatening injuries.

Traffic was diverted from this area until approximately 6:15 pm with the assistance of Hanover Township Emergency Services. The crash remains under investigation by the Barrington Hills Police Department and the Major Crash Assistance Team of Lake County.
